Recessional

Linda's casket will be carried from the Chapel
to the song 'Angel' by Robbie Williams

I Am I, and You Are You.

I am I, and you are you.
Whatever we were to each other, that we still are.
Call me by my old familiar name;
Speak to me in the easy way which you always used.
Put no difference in your tone;
Wear no forced air of solemnity or sorrow.
Laugh, as we always laughed,
at the little jokes we enjoyed together.
Let my name be ever the household word that it always was,
Let it be spoken without effect,
without the trace of a shadow on it.
Life means all that it ever meant;
it is the same that it ever was;
there is unbroken continuity,
Why should I be out of mind,
because I am out of sight?
All is well.

From Linda's Collection:

Life should NOT be a journey to the grave with the intention of arriving safely in an attractive and well preserved body, but rather to skid in sideways, champagne in one hand – cigarette in the other, body thoroughly used up, totally worn out and screaming WOOO HOOO –what a ride!
