From The Ridiculous To The Sublime

We met at a dance for the desperates
And it seems that fate took a hand
We talked and we laughed and simply ignored a local top band
Our meetings were frequent from this
And our partings were made with a kiss We then lived together like sinners wherever But plans for our future were very clever
We would work very hard and save all our money
Our marriage together seemed very sunny
We then found a home which was worn to the bone
But with hard work and effort and a banker's loan We transformed this place to a home of good looks And filled up the rooms with knick-knacks and books
We had our bad moments as angry as hell
If anyone hasn't then please do us tell
We always got over it and carried on as before So neither of us got shoved out the door Now we are older and wiser it seems
But the state of our health could shatter our dreams
I hope this will not end our idyllic life
As I really and truly love my dear wife
This is the end of my story for now
As I look at my Wife and slowly I bow

To my dear Wife Jill with love from Ian

Life's Overview

Time of Reflection

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, which art in heaven, hallowed be thy name thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory, for ever and ever.
Amen.
