Poem
If You Stand Very Still
Read by Anton Garland

If you stand very still in the heart of the wood
You will hear many wonderful things
The snap of a twig, the wind in the trees
Or the whirr of invisible wings
If you stand very still in the turmoil of life
And you wait for the voice from within –
You'll be led down the quiet ways of wisdom and peace
In a mad world of chaos and din.
If you stand very still and you hold to your faith
You will draw from the silence the things that you need
Hope, courage and strength for your task.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father in heaven
hallowed be your name
Your kingdom come
Your will be done
On earth as in heaven
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.
For the Kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours now and forever.
Amen
