Welcome and Introduction

One at Rest

Think of me as one at rest for me you should not cry
I have no pain, no troubled thoughts, as now we say goodbye.
The living, thinking me that was
is now forever still,
And life goes on without me as time forever will.

If your heart is heavy now because I've gone away Dwell not long upon it friend for none of us can stay.
Those of you who liked me
I sincerely thank you all.
And those of you who loved me
I thank you most of all.

In my long full lifetime
as time went rushing by,
I found some time to hesitate,
to laugh, to love, to cry.
Matters not if time began,
if time will ever cease?
I was here, I used it all,
and now I am at peace.

The Irish Blessing

May the road rise to meet you.
May the wind be always at your back.
May the sun shine warm upon your face;
The rains fall soft upon your fields
And until we meet again,
May God hold you in the palm of his hand.

Following the Irish Blessing you are invited to come forward and place a sprig of rosemary on the casket as you say your final farewell
