Reading: Hold Fast to the Memories

Hold fast to your memories
To all the cherished moments of the past,
To the blessings and the laughter,
The joys and celebrations,
The sorrows and the tears,
They all add up to a treasure of fond yesterdays
That you shared and spent together
And they keep the one you loved close to you in spirit and in thought.

Commendation

Blessing

Please come forward and place your flower on June's casket.

Fairy Tales Can Come True - by Carolyn Leigh

Fairy tales can come true
It can happen to you if you're young at heart For it's hard, you will find
To be narrow of mind if you're young at heart
You can go to extremes with impossible schemes
You can laugh when your dreams fall apart at the seams
And life gets more exciting with each passing day
And love is either in your heart or on it's way
Don't you know that it's worth Every treasure on earth to be young at heart For as rich as you are It's much better by far to be young at heart
And if you should survive to a hundred and five Look at all you'll derive out of being alive
And here is the best part, you have a head start
If you are among the very young at heart.

Gone From My Sight - Read by Holly Narey
by Henry Van Dyke

I am standing upon the seashore. A ship, at my side, spreads her white sails to the moving breeze and starts for the blue ocean. She is an object of beauty and strength.
I stand and watch her until, at length, she hangs like a speck of white cloud just where the sea and sky come to mingle with each other.
Then, someone at my side says, "There, she is gone."
Gone where?
Gone from my sight. That is all. She is just as large in mast, hull and spar as she was when she left my side.
And, she is just as able to bear her load of living freight to her destined port.
Her diminished size is in me -- not in her.
And, just at the moment when someone says, "There, she is gone," there are other eyes watching her coming, and other voices ready to take up the glad shout, "Here she comes!"
And that is dying…
