My Mother Kept A Garden

My mother kept a garden, a garden of the heart,
She planted all the good things, that gave my life it's start.
She turned me to the sunshine, and encouraged me to dream,
Fostering and nurturing, the seeds of self esteem.....
And when the winds and rain came, she protected me enough-
But not too much because she knew, I'd need to stand up strong and tough.
Her constant good example, always taught me right from wrong-
Markers for my pathway that will last a lifetime long.
I am my Mother's garden, I am her legacy-
And I hope she feels the love reflected back from me.

Gardens And Flowers

What a desolate place would be a world without a flower,
It would be a face without a smile, a feast without a welcome.
Are not flowers the stars of the earth,
and are not our stars the flowers of the heaven.

Morning Has Broken

Morning has broken, like the first morning;
blackbird has spoken, like the first bird.
Praise for the singing, praise for the morning,
praise for them, springing fresh from the word.

Sweet the rain's new fall, sunlit from heaven,
like the first dewfall, on the first grass.
Praise for the sweetness, of the wet garden,
sprung from completeness, where his feet pass.

Mine is the sunlight; mine is the morning
born of the one light, Eden saw play.
Praise with elation, praise every morning,
God's recreation, of the new day.

The Lords Prayer

Our Father, which art in heaven, hallowed be thy name
thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory, for ever and ever.
Amen
