Order of Service

Welcome

Prayer

First Reading

by Hamish Dephoff

You can shed tears that they've gone,
Or you can smile because they have lived.

You can close your eyes and pray they'll come back,
Or you can open your eyes and see all they have left.

Your heart can be empty because you can't see them,
Or your heart can be full of the love you've shared.

You can turn your back on tomorrow because of yesterday,
Or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday.

You can remember them and only that they've gone,
Or you can cherish their memory and let it live on.

Be empty and turn your back,
Or you can do what they'd want;
Smile, open your eyes, love and go on.

2nd Reading

Ode to Jo - With thanks to Robbie Burns

Our friend Jo here lies at rest,
And here we are who loved her best,
A friend to all, full of empathy,
A person who solved life's problems practically,
At work she healed the sickly,
If you pissed her off she could be quite prickly,
Full of chat, she liked to help,
The gap she's left will be widely felt,
Few hearts like hers with kindness warmed
Few heads with knowledge so informed,
If there is another world she lives in bliss
If there is none; she made the best of this

Photo Presentation

Letting Go Prayer

Litany of Remembrance

In the rising of the sun and it's going down

Response
We will remember Jo

In the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter

Response

In the blueness of the sky and in the warmth of summer

Response

In the rustlings of leaves and in the beauty of autumn

Response

In the beginning of the year and when it ends

Response

When we are sick and lost in heart

Response

When we have joys we yearn to share

Response

So long as we live Jo too shall live for she is part of us and

We will remember her.
