Rangiora, by Dora Shine 1959

I stroke the back of bare August hills
Beast of my youth now shaggy grown and tame
I know you all by feature and by name
And call again the rugged syllables
Of Sharks Tooth and My Hill, The Mud Flat,
Pa Hill, and Whare Ridge, and Sugar Top high up
Above the covered bush, all humped and touched
With frost along the ridge
I climbed up on your backs when I was young
And rode the sky and saw the fields below
Fall back on waves of summer green and snow
But wilder mountains wait me where I go.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven,
Hallowed by thy Name.
Thy kingdom come.
Thy will be done,
On earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
As we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
But deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
The power, and the glory,
For ever and ever.
Amen.

Hymn: How Great Thou Art, by Sir Howard Morrison

Oh Lord my God, when I in awesome wonder
Consider all, the works Thy hands have made
I see the stars, I hear the rolling thunder
Thy power throughout the universe displayed

Whakaaria mai to ripeka ki au
Tiaho mai ra roto i te po
Hei kona au titiro atu ai, ora mate hei au koe noho ai

Whakaaria mai to ripeka ki au
Tiaho mai (how great thou art) ra roto i te po (how great thou art)

Then sings my soul my saviour God to thee
How great thou art, how great thou art

Then sings my song my saviour God to thee
How great thou art, how great thou art
