He is gone by David Harkins

You can shed tears that he is gone, or you can smile because he has lived.
You can close your eyes and pray that he'll come back, or you can open your eyes and see all he's left.
Your heart can be empty because you can't see him, or you can be full of the love that you shared.
You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday, or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday.
You can remember only that he is gone, or you can cherish his memory and let it live on.
You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back.
Or you can do what he'd want:
smile, open your eyes, love and go on.

Welcome and Opening Prayer

23 Psalm

The Lord's my Shepherd, I'll not want,
He makes me down to lie, in pastures green, He leadeth me, the quiet waters by.

My soul He doth restore again,
and me to walk doth make,
within the paths of righteousness, e'en for His own name's sake.

Yea, though I walk in death's dark vale, yet will I fear no ill, for Thou art with me, and Thy rod and staff me comfort still.

My table Thou hast furnished in presence of my foes, my head Thou dost with oil anoint,
and my cup overflows.

Goodness and mercy all my life,
shall surely follow me,
and in God's house for evermore my dwelling-place shall be.
